

NAPO Seattle Area Chapter

Membership Categories & Benefits

Updated 9/2/2020

Allied	Business Partner	Multi-Person Business	Professional	Provisional	Emeritus/ Retired	Student
An Allied Member is employed by a government agency, postsecondary educational institution, nonprofit organization, for-profit entity, or is self-employed and is engaged as an organizing and/or productivity professional who does not offer services to the public. An entity that qualifies for the Business Partner category may not join as an Allied Member. Example: Office managers, personal assistants, organizing or productivity bloggers, radio/TV.	A Business Partner is a company engaged in the manufacture, distribution, and/or sale of equipment and/or supplies or services that complement the organizing and/or productivity industry, with one individual designated as its representative to the association.	Organizing and productivity businesses with more than one employee or owner may purchase multiple memberships at a discounted rate. Membership through this dues structure is available to the business's owners, partners, or W-2 employees only; independent contractors are not eligible. Under this structure, business owners and/or employees will share the same renewal date. Each individual member will join as a Provisional member and not appear in the Directory until s/he has completed the three classes in the Professional Practices Coursework (see Provisional Member description) OR earned the Certified Professional Organizer® credential to become a Professional Member. A Professional Member participating in the Multi-Person Business structure is entitled to the full range of NAPO membership benefits, including a listing in the Professional Organizer and Productivity Consultant Search Tool, voting privileges, and eligibility to serve on the Board of Directors. Membership seats are transferable within the business. For example, if individual leaves a business during the membership term, that business can designate another owner, partner, or W-2 employee in that seat.	A Professional Member is an individual who has successfully completed the Professional Practices course requirements and is engaged in the organizing and/or productivity profession. Example: Someone who provides in person or virtual organizing services to residential or business clients.	A Provisional Member is an individual who has not yet successfully completed the Professional Practices course requirements and is engaged in the organizing and/or productivity profession. Example: Someone who provides or aspires to provide in person or virtual organizing services to residential or business clients.	A Retired Member shall be an individual who is a retired Professional Member no longer engaged in the organizing and/or productivity profession, is at least 55 years of age, and has been a NAPO member for at least 12 years.	A Student Member is an individual who is enrolled as a full-time student at an accredited college or university. Example: College student interested in professional organizing or productivity as a career.

